December—Seasonal Celebrations

Explore how people have celebrated the winter solstice in different times and different cultures. Discover the origins of many of our own holiday traditions!

January—You Say You Want a Revolution

How did the Industrial Revolution impact children? Examine how the lives of children changed as people moved from farms to factories, with a special emphasis on the milling industry.

February—Hail to the Chiefs

Why do George Washington and Abraham Lincoln deserve a national holiday? We'll take a look at the lives of these two Presidents, and discuss the importance of the Executive Branch of our government.
